

Florida International University Program in the Study of Spirituality spirituality.fiu.edu
and Temple Emanu-El
1701 Washington Ave., Miami Beach
(305)538-2503

press release:

InterSpiritual Wisdom
-Jewish, Muslim, Hindu and Buddhist contemplative practices come to South Beach on Jan. 31

Respected teachers of Jewish, Muslim, Hindu, and Buddhist spirituality will share their insights in a groundbreaking program on January 31, 2010, 5-7:30 p.m., at Temple Emanu-El, 1701 Washington Avenue, Miami Beach.

The event features the return to Miami of popular Rabbi Rami Shapiro, joined by his contemplative colleagues Swami Atmarupananda (a Hindu monk), Shaikh Kabir and Camille Helminski (Sufis), and Dr. Ed Bastian (Buddhist teacher). It is jointly presented by FIU's Program in the Study of Spirituality and Temple Emanu-El.

"InterSpirituality is a fresh approach inter-religious dialogue," according to Bastian. "It focuses on a deep contemplative experience that lies at the heart of the world's great spiritual traditions. It celebrates the spiritual creativity emerging from the meeting of, and dialogue between, people of all religions"

Background on the InterSpirituality programs and its teachers is available at <http://interspiritualwisdom.org/main/?page\_id=88> or by calling 805 695-0104.

The January 31st program is free and open to the public.