

Join Us for a Public Forum with

Dr. William Aviles, Associate Professor,
Department of Political Science, University of Nebraska-Kearney, speaking on:

“Low-Intensity Democracy in Colombia”

Friday, April 16, 1:00-3:00 PM
Modesto Maidique Campus, GC 150
Florida International University

Dr. Avilés' scholarly interests focus on civil-military relations, U.S. foreign policy, globalization, and political violence in Latin America. He has published in the Journal of Latin American Studies and Latin American Perspectives and presented his work at professional conferences such as the Latin American Studies Association, the American Political Science Association and the Western Political Science Association. His book Global Capitalism, Democracy and Civil-Military Relations in Colombia was published by SUNY press in March of 2006. His present research has focused upon civil-military relations and democracy in Colombia and the Andes, globalization, as well as U.S. "democracy promotion" strategies in Latin America.