

Religion and Politics in Latin America since the 1970s

A lecture and presentation of Hemisphere Volume 19 by

Daniel Levine, Ph.D.

Professor of Political Science
University of Michigan

Friday, March 26, 2010 | 12:00p.m.
FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus
Green Library, Room 139

Professor Daniel Levine's recent research and publications focus on three issues: the role of religion in social and political process of change, issues of democratization, and State-society relations and the evolution of civil society. His work focuses on Latin America and also examines broader theoretical and comparative dimensions. Professor Levine's publications include: Popular Voices in Latin America Catholicism; Religion and Political Conflict in Latin America; and Constructing Culture and Power in Latin America.

Event is free and open to the public.
For information and to RSVP call 305-348-2894.