

presents

“Zimbabwe: A Country on the Precipice”

James McGee, Ex-ambassador of the US in Zimbabwe

James McGee is the Senior Diplomatic Advisor at the Africa Center for Strategic Studies. In this capacity, Mr. McGee assists the Director in representational responsibilities at conferences, events, and official functions in Washington, elsewhere in the United States, in Africa and Europe. A career diplomat, Mr. McGee was U.S. Ambassador to Zimbabwe from October 2007 to August 2009. Prior to his nomination, he served as Ambassador to the Republic of Madagascar (2004-2007) and as Ambassador to Swaziland (2002-2004). While serving as Ambassador to Madagascar, he also served as Ambassador to the Union of the Comoros (2006-2007). Mr. McGee began his career in the Foreign Service in 1981 and served as Third Secretary and Vice Consul at the American Embassy in Lagos, Nigeria, from 1982 to 1984. From 1984 to 1986, he served as Administrative Officer at the American Consulate General in Lahore, Pakistan. Mr. McGee served as Second Secretary and Supervisory General Services Officer at the American Embassy in The Hague, The Netherlands, from 1986 to 1989. From 1989 to 1991, he served as Administrative Officer at the American Consulate General in Bombay, India.

April 1st, 2010

Modesto Maidique Campus

4:00 pm: Reception GL 422

5:30 pm: Lecture GL 220

Co-sponsored by the Office of the Dean, College of Arts and Sciences, AADS GSA and CSO.

This event is free and open to all FIU Students.

3rd Annual Chris Gray Memorial Lecture

African & African Diaspora Studies

University Park, LC 304 | 305-348-6860 | <http://africana.fiu.edu>