

Ruth K. & Shepard Broad Distinguished Lecture Series

School of International and Public Affairs

9/11, Islam and the Arab Spring: An FIU Teach-In Featuring FIU Faculty Experts

September 9, 2011 | 10 AM - 12 PM | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus | GC Ballrooms

Join the School of International and Public Affairs for a discussion on the legacy of 9/11 and its impact on US policy in the Middle East and relations with Islamic societies. We will also explore how new societies emerging in the Middle East will respond to the challenges posed by ongoing transformation and the prospects for creating democracies in the Arab world. Panelists include:

- Majid Al-Khalili
Department of Politics & International Relations/SIPA
- Maya Ferial Boutaghou
Department of Modern Languages/SIPA
- Paul Kowert
Department of Politics & International Relations/SIPA
- Maria del Mar Logroño Narbona
Department of History/SIPA
- Russell Lucas
Department of Politics & International Relations/SIPA
- Mohiaddin Mesbahi
Department of Politics & International Relations/SIPA
- Noah Weisbord
College of Law/SIPA Fellow

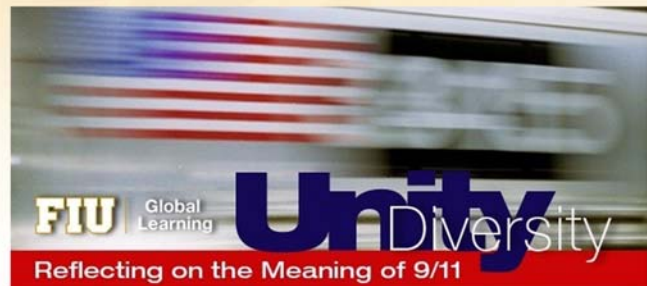

Photo: Ariana Caroli, Unity in Diversity American Flag Series 2001-2011, "Subway Flag," Courtesy AJ Japour Gallery

Unity/Diversity is a series of free public events at FIU that place 9/11 in personal, cultural, historical and geopolitical perspective. For more, go to <http://go.fiu.edu/9-11>.

9/11, Islam and the Arab Spring is co-sponsored by:

- Middle East Studies Program
- Department of Politics & International Relations
- Department of History
- Department of Modern Languages
- College of Law