

Internal and International Migration in Mexico: 1995-2000

Presented by
Dr. Ernesto Aguayo
Date : March 8, 2011
Time: 2PM
Location: RB 140

Ernesto Aguayo-Téllez received his Ph.D. in economics from Rice University in 2005. His areas of interest are labor economics and development economics. He is currently Professor of Economics and Researcher at the Center for Economic Research (CIE) at the Universidad Autónoma de Nuevo León (UANL) in Monterrey, Mexico. Professor Aguayo-Téllez is also member of the Mexican System of Researchers (SNI)

Professor Aguayo-Téllez was a post-doctoral fellow at Rice University (2005) and at the University of California, San Diego (2006). His research has focused on the impact of trade liberalization and economic reforms on wages, income distribution and inequality, including gender, industry and regional inequality. He is currently working on issues related to internal and international migration, education and gender discrimination and labor market integration in the Mexico-US border.

Co-Sponsored by: FIU Latin American and Caribbean Center
FIU Department of Economics

OPE-IFLE

Funded by the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Postsecondary Education
International and Foreign Language Education

Arts & Sciences
FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

Visit us online at ippcs.fiu.edu

For more info email ippcs@fiu.edu or call 305.348.2977.