

Senator Richard B. Stone Washington, D.C. Internships Award

The award honors the work and career of Senator Richard B. Stone. Senator Stone served in the United States Senate from 1970 to 1975. During that time, he was a member of the Foreign Relations Committee. He supported the Panama Canal Torrijos-Carter Treaties, led efforts to secure congressional aid for Israel, and served as advisor during the 1978 Camp David Peace Treaty. After his time in the Senate, Senator Stone was appointed by President Reagan as a Special Envoy in Central America. In 1991, he was nominated and confirmed as U.S. Ambassador to Denmark under President George H. W. Bush and served through the beginning of President Bill Clinton's first year in office. In addition to serving as United States Senator and Ambassador, Senator Stone was a member of the Florida Senate (48th District) from 1967-1970 and the 16th Secretary State of Florida from 1971 to 1974. Senator Stone lives in Chevy Chase, Maryland where he and his late wife Marlene lived for many years.
