

Anthropology/Sociology Major Requirements

Anthropology Track

Department of Global & Sociocultural Studies
Steven J. Green School of International & Public Affairs
(305) 348-2247 * Fax (305) 348-3605
www.gss.fiu.edu

University Requirements

- Lower division university core requirements or (for transfer students) general education requirement
- A minimum of 120 credit hours
- The final 30 credits must be taken at FIU (with exceptions requiring the approval of the Dean's office)
- GPA 2.0 or higher

Steven J. Green School of International & Public Affairs

- A minimum of 48 credit hours of upper division courses
- A grade of "C" or higher in each major course
- Foreign language: equivalent of the second semester of a first-year course sequence

ANTHROPOLOGY (Track requirements) (30 credits)

Lower Division (3 credits)

- ANT 2000 – Introduction to Anthropology

Upper Division Core Courses (15 credits)

- ANT 3212 – World Ethnography
- ANT 3034 – Anthropological Theories
- SYA 3300 – Research Methods
- SYA 4011 – Social Theory
- At least one of the following: ANT 3497-Introduction to Qualitative Research Methods, SYA 3400-Introduction to Quantitative Social Research; GIS 3048-Application of GIS; SYA 4352-GIS & Social Research, or any other adviser-approved research methods course in the Department of Global & Sociocultural Studies or in another department.

Upper Division Department Electives (12 credits: 3000 level or higher)

- Two additional anthropology courses (ANT)

- One geography course GEA/GEO - (GEO 3510 – Earth Resources, offered by the Department of Earth & Environment is a natural sciences course that should not be taken to fulfill this requirement)

- One sociology course (SYA/SYD/SYG/SYO/SYP: 3000-4000 level)

OTHER ELECTIVES* (30 credits)

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____

*Option: Please consider applying the upper division major courses (required and elective) to a double major with Geography, a minor in Geography, or a certificate program.