

Steven J. Green
School of International & Public Affairs

Bachelor of Arts in Latin American and Caribbean Studies

Degree Program Hours: 120 credits

Lower Division Preparation

(60 credits)

UCC Requirements, Global Learning, and Foreign Language

*Transfer Students: Florida AA students need 60 total credits.

Required Core Courses

(6 credits)

Take the following two:

LAS3002: Introduction to Latin American and Caribbean Studies

LAS4294: Contemporary Latin American and Caribbean -

Required Distribution

(24 credits)

Electives at the 3000 or 4000 level in:

International Political Economy of Latin America and Caribbean (9 credits)

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Latin America and Caribbean Cultures (9 credits)

4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

Main Concentration in same or related prefixes (6 Credits)

7. _____
8. _____

Language Requirements

(6 credits)

Two upper Division language courses (3000/4000) in Spanish, Portuguese, Haitian Creole, or French. Lower division language courses do not count towards the B.A. language requirements. Students who test out of the language courses must still take two 3000/4000 language courses.

1. _____
2. _____

Optional:

Students should consider LACC's international study, research, and training opportunities.

meet with your assigned advisor to discuss individual requirements for graduation.*